FLORIDA RESORT WINS NATURIST TRAVEL AWARD

Cypress Cove Nudist Resort in Kissimmee, Florida has been named as the Best Naturist Venue: Rest of the World in the 2023 Naturist Travel Awards.

The awards recognise excellence in the international naturist travel industry. With a focus on venues, destinations and companies, they have been voted for online by naturists worldwide, and were inaugurated in 2021.

According to Peter Sewall, Cypress Cove's general manager, "This award is especially significant because the recognition comes directly from naturists. For 59 years, Cypress Cove has been a top destination for naturists from around the globe. We love providing travellers with our brand of a traditional naturist experience within a modern resort environment."

"International travel is making a comeback," adds Dan Whicker, director of sales and marketing at Cypress Cove. "In the coming months, we anticipate meeting even more global visitors who enjoy a wholesome clothing-free holiday."

Organised by specialist website Naturist Travel, the Naturist Travel Awards have been supported by H&E Naturist magazine, the world's longest established naturist publication, which this year celebrated its 120th anniversary.
