Women Celebrate Body Equality at Nudist Resort's International Women's Day Event

KISSIMMEE, FL, February 26, 2020 – To celebrate International Women's Day on March 8, Cypress Cove Nudist Resort in Kissimmee, Florida is hosting a weekend-long event that has been designed by women and for women to explore issues of equality, body acceptance, and freedom in a naturally safe and inclusive environment.

Beginning on Friday, March 6, Cypress Cove's "International Women's Day Weekend" will feature speakers and presentations by experienced women who have found freedom by uncovering their true selves. All women who visit the resort during this special weekend will be offered a buy-one-get-one-free special off the usual $25 resort fee. So, it is a great opportunity to bring a girlfriend and enjoy a day or weekend together.

"This year's International Women's Day theme is 'An Equal World is an Enabled World: Celebrating women's achievements and increasing visibility,'" said Susan Shopiro, the event coordinator and chair of the Naturist Action Committee. "Women continue to be leaders in the nudist movement and have demonstrated that without the barriers of clothing we can cooperate and build on our individual strengths to create a better life for all."

The event at Cypress Cove is not just for nudists, though. Any woman who is curious about clothing optional resorts and wholesome, family-oriented nude recreation is encouraged to visit and learn from other women who have found health and freedom through shedding their costumes, preconceptions, and the emotional baggage that comes from a negative body image.

"You will find yourself being accepted for who you are and not for how you look or how you are dressed," Shopiro said. "Just come and be."
